Cleaning Out of Ring Rule by the Democratic Delegates Is but the Prelude to a General Smashing of Rings He Declares-The Missourians Were Nasty and Mean at the Convention.

(BY ZACH LAMAR COBB)

Baltimore, Md., July 2.—We nominated Wilson today and probably would of rotten government and graft. It has have done so last night if the convention not been tolerated in this convention; it Illinois was ready and not adjourned. a true Democratic state and her people should not be held responsible for the stitution in the control of one man-disgrace of sending Ryan as a delegate. That man not only selects the men to to the convention. Ryan was made a delegate by a trick.

The Virginia people flooded their delegates with telegrams to vote for Wilson. Many other delegations were at the bewied down.

The convention was eager to hear the announcement of Wilson's nomination, which had now become apparent.

Eryan was a center of interest as Wilson's nomination became certain. He said he had wanted most of all the nomination of a progressive.

Wilson Take the wilson in hight.

I had hoped that New Mexico would line up before this time. Her delegates are good fellows and finally fell in line.

This is the Democratic year. Wilson can win in November. New Mexico Democrata need a winning presidential candidate to help elect Democratic congress. ocrats need a winning presidential candi-date to help elect Democratic congress-men up there. The controling men of the New Mexico delegation, however, are former Missourians and they naturally hated to leave Clark.

Missourians Are Spiteful. The Missouri delegation has shown a spiteful spirit. They are ugly and mean. This is a pity. Nothing can be gained by spite work; nothing can be gained by their insults to Bryan. Bryan is strongis the only thing that delayed the nom-ination of Wilson.

A Great Object Lesson. The convention has been a great object lesson. It has demonstrated that the Democratic party must not and cannot be controled by machines and bosses. Boss rule, whether in a national con-

All that is necessary to free El Paso from the "ring" is to let El Paso breathe in the spirit of the times. If the ring wins this year, it means that El Paso derful growth and prosperity that is ahead of us.

Advice to El Paso.

To re-elect "the ring" would be to retard the rightful progress of the magnificent city we love so well. I hope our people will catch the spirit of this convention. The rotten combination that elected Parker, apparently had complete control on the first day, but the men who were here to fight for right were determined and by the power of being right we have gained control and will win all along the line.

The people of El Paso are as moral and are as clean as any people. They are as courageous; if they will catch the spirit of this convention we will be freed vention or in an El Paso election, is un- I from the disgrace of Boss Rule.

ing the afternoon, when William Jennings Bryan found himself in the midst of half a score of fist fights.

Last night a match of offence, touched to the extreme, would have set the entire convention ablaze. It was on this situation that many of the leaders based a hope of a nomination before the night was over. They argued that the weary delegates would break the fast lines they have been holding and throw enough votes to one of the candidates to end the agony of suspense. Others contended that the of suspense. Others contended that the situation made an agreement impossible on any one of the candidates be-the wison forces, encouraged by their steady gain through the day as-serted that in time they would secure a majority of the convention and that the delegates, to end the struggle, would flock to the Wilson standard.

Another attempt to reach some sort of an agreement among the leaders failed. The socalled conservatives were in conference. National chairman Norman E. Mack, Charles F. Murphy, of Tammany hall; Col. George Harvey, representative John J. Fitzgerald, of New York; and Roger C. Sullivan, of Illinois, dined together. After the talk chairman Mack declared that every one seemed to be "sitting tight."

Illinois Goes Into Cateur. After casting its vote in the 28th baljot for Clark, as usual, the Illinois delegation retired to an ante-room for a caucus. It was still in progress when the 19th ballot began.

The Illinois delegation in their caucus decided by a vote of 47 to 11 not to desert speaker Clark "at the present

IN OTHER CONVENTIONS

The Democratic convention of 1853, at which Franklin Fearce was nominated, did not arrive at a choice until the 19th ballot; Douglas was nominated on what practically was the 59th ballot, at the Democratic convention, of 1860, his nomination really coming on the second ballot of a second convention, after the first convention, meeting in Charleston, S. C., had falled to nominate on 57 ballots. The second convention met in Baltimore, where Douglas was nominated on the second ballot. An anti-Douglas convention met that same year in Baltimore and nominated Brecheuridge for the presidency. This was the first split in the Democratic party.

The largest number of ballots ever taken in a Republican convention was at Chicago, in 1880, when it took 36 ballots to nomnate Garfield.

Chairman James formally declared Woodrow Wilson the nomines of the convention for president of the United States, at 3:35 p. m.

A tremendous demonstration followed the announcement of Wilsons nomination by acciamation. Cheer after cheer swept the hall and was taken up by the crowds outside.

Convention Adjourned.

The convention adjourned until 3 p. m. for nomination of a vice president.

Last Night's Session.

The deadlock in the Democratic national convention over a presidential nominee seemed more complicated than ever when adjournment was taken at 12:43 a. m. until noon today. Woodrow Wilson had made steady gains during Monday's balloting until he reached a high water mark of 501½ votes on the 29th ballot. He remained stationary on the 40th ballot and then began to lose ground. The last ballot was the 42d, when governor Wilson polled 494 votes.

42d, when governor Wilson polled 494 Speaker Champ Clark reached the lowest ebb of his candidacy on the ballot whese Wilson reached a crest. He went down to 422 votes at that time, but immediately began to pick up and had gone to 430 when adjournment was taken. The evening started auspiciously for Wilson with the 35th ballot and on the 39th he had passed the 500 mark with one and a half votes to spare. Clark in the same hallots had lost 11 votes. On the 40th call of the roll Wilson's 50112 remained the same and Clark gained a single vote leaving Clark gained a single vote, leaving him 423. Meantime the vote for Oscar W. Underwood fluctuated within 10 votes of the 100 mark.

By the time the 40th ballot had been completed, there was seemingly no hope of a nomination last night. The delegates sat in a sort of stupor. The roll call clerks entered the vote mechanically, often without waiting for the responses from the various states. At the end of the 40th ballot a tired Alabama delegate moved to advour. At the end of the 40th ballot a tired Alabama delegate moved to adjourn, but when a roll call on the motion was demanded by the Wilson forces, he withdrew it. Another attempt was made to adjourn after the 41st ballot and again it failed. After the 42d the motion carried.

Delegates All Weary, The weary, bedraggled, prevish aggregation of delegates and alternates drifted into the convention hall last night with a long dreary night session in prospect. They confronted the same monotonous grind of balloting that had continued from last Friday morning.
